

Primary care mental health masterclasses

Personality disorder
6.30pm
Wednesday 14 October 2009

Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust is hosting a series of free evening masterclasses on mental health issues for primary care professionals. The aim of the series is to:

- Provide GPs with updates on the current evidence-based treatments for common mental health conditions
- Share information on new assessment tools
- Share best practice care pathways

The next event will take place on Wednesday 14 October 2009. This will focus on personality disorder and will include presentations from Jane Harris, Head of Bromley Psychology, and Carol Paton, Chief Pharmacist, Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust. They will cover the management of people with personality disorders and the latest information on medication.

The event will take place at Holiday Inn London - Bexley, Black Prince Interchange, Southwold Road, Bexley DA5 1ND. Refreshments will be available from 6.30pm and the presentations will begin at 7.30pm.

There will also be a demonstration of Oxleas' new website www.oxleas.nhs.uk which includes an information section for GPs. The demonstration will take place between 6.30pm and 7.30pm.

To book a free place, please call us on 01322 625034 or email rhiannon.adams@oxleas.nhs.uk
